
Speaker Rick Allen of Biological Solutions

Biologically proactive seminars, workshops and presentations are.....

Advanced Credentialed
Consultant

Inspiring audiences to rethink traditional patterns of business

Providing expert Insight into sustainable technologies for our environment

Reshaping management of turf, agriculture and remediation practices

Instructing proven applications for increasing ROI while reducing costs

Demonstrating practical strategies for mitigating tough environmental challenges

Presentations for soil management, water conservation, remediation, and sustainable environmental solutions.

Improving Profits and ROI with Existing Budget Constraints.

Growing Plants while Conserving Water

Employing Non-traditional Approaches in Agricultural Environments

Employing Active Root Development for Turf Management Strategies

Enlivening Soil

Removing the Environmental Pollutants Seamlessly

Rick Allen has been involved in the environmental business for over ten years. Rick provides his experience and common-sense understanding to groups and organizations who are ready to learn key environmental tools to improve and enhance existing operational strategies.

Due to Rick's expertise in the business of addressing challenging problems with soil and water, Rick is often consulted to provide broad-based, environmentally sound solutions to corporations, municipalities, small business, associations and organizations.

For additional information on booking Rick Allen for your next meeting, event or conference, please contact:

Rick Allen

877-729-6984

rick@biologicalsolutionsllc.com
