

Speaker Rick Allen of BioLynceus Biological Solutions

Proactive agricultural & organic seminars, and presentations are.....

Advanced Credentialed
Consultant

Inspiring audiences to rethink traditional patterns of business

Providing expert Insight into sustainable technologies for our agriculture.

Reshaping management agriculture practices.

Instructing proven applications for increasing ROI while reducing costs.

Demonstrating practical strategies for mitigating tough agricultural challenges

Presentations for soil management, water conservation, fertilizer reduction, and sustainable agricultural solutions.

Improving Crops while reducing costs

Growing Plants while Conserving Water

Employing Non-traditional Approaches in Agricultural Environments

Improving Profits and ROI with Existing Budget Constraints.

Enlivening & Rebuilding Soil

Remediation of Salt and Chemical Build-Up in soil and crops.

Rick Allen has been involved in the agricultural business for over ten years. Rick provides his experience and common-sense understanding to groups and organizations who are ready to learn key agricultural tools to improve and enhance existing operational strategies.

Due to Rick's expertise in the business of addressing challenging problems with soil and water, Rick is often consulted to provide broad-based, environmentally sound solutions to growers, small business, associations and organizations.

For additional information on booking Rick Allen for your next meeting, event or conference, please contact:

Rick Allen

877-729-6984

Rick@BioLynceus.com